

?WHY KNOW YOU DO

I could have written it "Do you know why?" except for the necessary emphasis on the order of the Y-H-W, which is more recognizable as the three letters of The Tetragrammaton. Those with knowledge of Greek would now pshaw! at the presentation of only three (3) letters because 'tetra' means four (4): so, where's the fourth letter?

Behold! It's the letter H again. Now for all that allegedly superior Greek knowledge, one would see and say The Tetragrammaton is Y-H-W-H, then dismiss it as either INsignificant or INapplicable, even INappropriate. Why? Because the Greeks were the ultimate pagans, with all their 'gods' (lesser elohim) in deference to the ultimate in imagination, zeus. Back to that #3, as in 0-for-3. But let's not look 'IN,' let's take the 'IN' out of these 3 words, and what would we have?

Sign; Apply; Appropriate.

Why is this work being done, and why should you follow it?

SHEMAntiXProvidence is all about revealing Scriptural Truths that could change your life in the most positive yet halting manner. Those following the steps presented are invited to ask and seek for even more revelations to satisfy their personal Spiritual intuition. Don't have any? Get some!

The work presented is through the use of the Hebrew Pictorial AlephBeth: Hebrew is the only INSPIRED language of The Scriptures; the Pictorial is another way to teach in accordance with (IAW) the original language; the accurate spelling of the ORIGINAL words, terms, titles, and names, especially the Sacred Names, is absolutely necessary to de-scribe (make a more meaningful definition by seeing the bigger PICTURE), providing more information than generic definitions and the media they were commonly displayed in.

Let's look at these three words individually.

SIGN could be another form of 'word.'

APPLY could be 'meaning.'

APPROPRIATE could be correct in form, or taken, retrieved, collected.

Together they 'out' the Greek scholar as a fool, simply due to their willful ignorance as the utmost in paganism (and for not knowing that Yahweh is the only worthy recipient of The Tetragrammaton). Yet the university systems honor them with the Greek lexicon for their fraternities and sororities. If only they knew...but would they care? Also, WHY should they? Again, the WHY, which is the answer.

The right-to-left question of the title is not written in the Spanish form, it actually asks the question, "Do you know Y-H-W?" with the three letters of The Tetragrammaton, the fourth letter is the second one used again. Do you know Yahweh? No, you don't. Quite the presumption, I know, but I'll bet you'll learn much more than you thought. And, not everyone will be happy to learn what is presented; there are consequences to consider.

SIGN:

The letter-word-picture-number Y, Yod, in the Pictorial is depicted as The Right Arm and Hand of Yahweh. Pardon the duplicates of 'Pictorial and depicted,' going forward only Pictorial will be used. Etymologically the Yod precedes the iota (ee-oh-tah), the eta (ay-tah), the epsilon ('eh' sound), and the alpha (ahl-fah) because there is no letter 'Y' in the inadequate Greek 'alphabet.' Which is a weak copy of the earlier Hebrew AlephBeth.

The Greek must use an iota-alpha combination to recreate the sound of the Yod, as in 'ee-ah' spoken quickly. Two letters must be used to make the sound of one very important, in fact, the most important, letter-word-picture-number of the Hebrew AlephBeth.

The Yod is the tenth letter of the 22 letter and 26-character AlephBeth. Ten represents ordinal perfection and, of course, the Ten Commandments. Hmm, do you know who was given the Ten Commandments, twice, and from Whom? The answers, I suspect, would put you at 0-for-2. If those three letters are those three pejoratives, then the Yod would be INsignificant. But, being better informed than the Greek scholar, the Yod is a SIGN that means WORD, and not figuratively in only one sense, either.

Sign: defined as representing by a figure, symbol, or a drawing; also metaphorically: an implied comparison; and, even literally, in actuality.

The Yod, in Pictorial, is a sign that means "The WORD"! The WORD of Yahweh is The Creator; Yahweh is also The Creator; They are Elohim, Who created everything. As originally told in Bereshyth 1:1 and confirmed in Yahchanan 1:1-3. The strongest evidence comes from the book written by YaHCHaNaN, whose name was not 'John' during Scriptural times.

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with Yahweh, and the Word was Elohim." Elohim, spoken as 'ell-oh-heem,' is the Scriptural Title of The Creator(s), it is a plural common noun. Common nouns are subject to transLATION; whereas proper nouns, such as names, are not. Names must be transLITERATED, which means they cross the language barrier and sound the same.

In the specific case of The Supreme Beings, should Their Names, Their Sacred Names, be left with a translated title that is a generic word misused around the world? No, no, and no. There is no other word that can be used to read, or especially speak, in any language, as respectfully and uniquely qualified as the word ELOHIM (H: ALHYM). It is a singular or plural word, much like 'sheep,' as there are never more than one sheep. If possessive, then it's sheep's, with the apostrophe, as in sheep's wool. Enough grammar, back to Scripture. Yod and The WORD.

"The WORD" is He Who was the King of Shalem in Bereshyth 14:18, Melchizedek, and as He Who is "The Word of Yahweh" first appearing to Abram in Bereshyth 15:1. But, even as the Yod in Pictorial represents 'The Word of Yahweh,' there are actual words that spell the title-and-Name out:

DaBaR-YaHWeH; or as it would appear in a Hebrew Scripture: DBR-YHWH.

Dalet is #4 of 22; Pictorial as a Door on a blueprint; Door, Yahshua.

Beth is #2 of 22; Pictorial as a House on a blueprint; House, Family, Temple; as a prefix: in.

Resh is #20 of 22; Pictorial as man's Head in left profile; Head, Doctrine; = to #200.

Yod is #10 of 22; Pictorial as a man's right arm hanging down, bent at the elbow, fingers splayed three and two; The Right Arm and Hand of Yahweh, Yahshua.

The Greek must use an iota-alpha combination to recreate the sound of the Yod, as in 'ee-ah' spoken quickly. Two letters must be used to make the sound of one very important, in fact, the most important, letter-word-picture-number of the Hebrew AlephBeth.

Hei is #5 of 22; Pictorial as a man, hands above head; Behold! Miracle, Reveal, Grace.

Waw is #6 of 22; Pictorial as an Ancient Nail; Establish, Man, Unity.

Hei is #5 of 22; Pictorial as a man, arms above his head, yelling Hey! Revelation.

DBR-YHWH narrative is: Yahshua is the Door (Dalet) to the House (Beth) of His Father (Resh), Who has His Hand (Yod) Revealed (Hei) and extended to Establish (Waw) Grace (Hei).

The SIGN, YOD, that is The WORD.

Bereshyth is Hebrew for 'In beginning,' as the B, Beth, #2 of the 22 letters, is also the prefix 'in,' 'Reshyth' means beginning. Others of the 22 also are used as tools of grammar, such as prefixes, suffixes, and articles.

Do you know of King 'Melchizedek'? That term is listed as #'s 4428 & 6664 in the Hebrew; it means King of Righteousness; Salem means peace in the verse's context, and it should be SHalem, from the base of SHaLoM #7965(H): safe, well, happy, friendly, health, prosperity, and peace. Thanks to the inadequate Greek for not being able to translate, let alone transliterate, any Hebrew words or even names with the Hebrew letter-word 'SHin.'

Still, proof given that The WORD is the Right Arm and Hand of Yahweh. But He was given short shrift, being misnomered as the pagan- the word of 'the Lord,' or- the word of 'ha-baal.'

That was in the 'Old Testament' of that mere 'book' known formally as the King James Version which should be retitled as the KYPV: the King Yacobus Per Version. Whenever the Truth is changed to a lie, it has become 'perverted.'

As the pagan scribes authorized by the man born as 'Yacobus,' then Iacobus, Iacomes, Iames, for the 1604-1610 editions of the 'KIV', then James and the 'KJV' by the 1611 editions. All men can change their own name, but the pagan protestant (redundant, I know) Yacobus/James changed the Sacred Names as well (as poorly, badly) as the names of most Scriptural characters. More on that later.

Apply, as in applicable, is the second not-a-pejorative to be dismissed. To apply is the definition of the next letter-word-picture-number, the H, Hei, from which we get, Hey! As initially described, apply means meaning; someone yells, Hey! and everyone else looks.

In the Pictorial, the Hei is a man standing, arms overhead, legs apart, as if waving for attention, being surprised, excited, and wants all others to know about it. To know what is to be applied, to see, witness, realize the truth of. That he's got "Good News" for all humanity.

BeSoWRaH #1309(H); from 1319; glad tidings; by implication reward for good news.

Apply, as in applicable, is the second not-a-pejorative to be dismissed. To apply is the definition of the next letter-word-picture-number, the H, Hei, from which we get, Hey! As initially described, apply means meaning; someone yells, Hey! and everyone else looks.

In the Pictorial, the Hei is a man standing, arms overhead, legs apart, as if waving for attention, being surprised, excited, and wants all others to know about it. To know what is to be applied, to see, witness, realize the truth of. That he's got "Good News" for all humanity.

'The' good news? Yes, the grammatical article 'the' is used before vowel starting (or sounding) words is pronounced, 'thee.' As in 'thee' anti-messiah; or 'thee Elohim' Just as the article 'an' is used before a word started with a vowel, as in 'an' icicle, or 'an' orange; the article 'a' is used before consonant starting words, such as 'a' box, or 'a' scholar. The Scriptural Good News is the answer, as given above, that YOU, me, anyone, everyone, can still come to "the knowledge of the Truth," from 1 Timothy 2:4.

The point being is that the letter-word Hei is an 'article' of the Hebrew language, the language of INSPIRATION, the ONLY language of the Inspired Word: The Scriptures.

Oh, and not only the original, or what is mistakenly called the 'Old' Testament (especially since the NEW COVENANT was given in YeremYaH 31:31-34), but the whole of The Scriptures: The TaNaK AND The Messianic Scriptures. Both were inspired in Hebrew, written in Hebrew, publicized in Hebrew. But the secular and pagan powers of the Roman Empire conspired to confiscate or conceal all Hebrew religious material, and then alter through intentional mistranslation what was given, and from there the paganism ensued. (There was no one named 'J'eremiah in The Scriptures.)

The Greeks had understood that a unified set of Hebrew Scriptures would be problematic. The non-Hebrews, and those Hebrews that were considered as 'Hellenized,' or no longer true to typical Hebrew worship, were all about the myriads of imaginary (and profitable) entities to be worshipped in the many temples (edifices), of the Roman, Greek, Druid, Persian, and Babylonian mythologies.

Let's recall that SIGN that means WORD. Well, "The Word" is actually spelled, originally, and in the Pictorial Hebrew, Ha DaBaR, as H- Hei, D- Dalet, B- Beth, R- Resh, Ha DaBaR. By the Pictorial one could see the letter-word-picture-numbers as:

Hei is #5 of 22; Pictorial as a man, legs apart, arms above his head, yelling; meaning Behold, Miracle, Revelation, as the #5 letter it stands for Grace.

Dalet is #4 of 22; Pictorial as an upside-down, flat-brimmed hat, or a Door on a blueprint; meaning The Door, in the Personage of Yahshua, which is the actual, factual, Sacred Name of The Messiah.

Beth is #2 of 22; Pictorial as a diagram of a House; meaning House, Family, Tent, and Temple; the Beth can also be used as a prefix, such as- in, at, by, among.

Resh is #20 of 22; Pictorial as a left profile of a man's head; meaning Head, Thoughts, Doctrine.

The Hebrew word for word is DaBaR; Dalet is a door; Beth is a house; Resh is a head.

Accurately it informs us that Yahshua is The Word, Ha DaBaR, Who is the Door to the House's, Family's Head, Who is Yahweh. It is how The Messiah spoke of Himself in the book of Yahchanan (not 'john,' whose name was not even possible in any human language until the late 1500's).

Yahchanan 10:9, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture."

'I am.'? 'I AM' is what was supposedly said in Shemoth 3:6- "The YaH, the Elohim of thy father, the Elohim of Abraham.." Yahshua repeated Himself to Yahchanan- The YaH is the door!

The "in and out" means they shall go 'in and out of the grave,' to the "pasture" of the Kingdom of Yahweh, not of 'the LORD,' or 'ha baal,' after a Merciful Judgement IF they have maintained a life of obedience. It's called Sanctification, and it is a condition for the Promise of Salvation, whether the pagan catholic or protestant teaches such or not. See Revelation 20:4. More to follow.

But first, you may be asking who Yahchanan is. That is the Immerser's actual, factual, Scriptural name. By the use of the Pictorial Hebrew language it has more meaning, much more than a definition. Spelled ORIGINALLY as YOD WAW CHET NUN NUN. In the Pictorial, here's the meaning:

Yod is #10 of 22; Pictorial as a man's right arm hanging down and bent 90° at the elbow, fingers splayed three and two; meaning The Right Arm and Hand of Yahweh, and Yahshua.

Waw is #6 of 22; Pictorial as an Ancient Nail; meaning Nail, Establish, Man, Unity.

CHet is #8 of 22; Pictorial as a fence: meaning Fence, Protection; as #8 it can mean New Beginning(s): a 7-day week ends, an 8th day is an opportunity for a New Beginning; the #8 is also the number for Love.

Nun is #14 of 22; Pictorial as a sperm seed pointing NW; meaning Seed, Heir, Propagate; the #14 has a value of 50, which is the number of Jubilee and Freedom. The word CHeN defines as Grace.

Nun is #14 of 22; Pictorial as a sperm seed; ibid; also meaning a doubly used and ending letter of the word for mercy: CHaNaN, that sin as a debt and a former lifestyle is forgiven.

About the Nun, spoken as 'noon,' it has both an internal and an ending symbol in the Modern Hebrew script. As the "son of Nun" Yahshua led the Yishraelites into the Promised Land, being the successor to Mosheh, who was not allowed in due to his disobeying Yahweh when he struck the rock for water, from 'Numbers' 20:7-13. There was no one named 'Joshua' in Scriptural times, and not until the late 1500's was any name spelled with a 'J' possible.

That also means there was no one named 'j'esus.

'Numbers' is the Anglo title, regarding the census, from the Latin, censere, meaning not only to count, but to value or judge. The original title of 'Wayyedabbar' or And He Said, could mean what it looks like: The WAY of His WORD. Some religious would agree with the use of the term 'The Way,' but their version of such comes from the FICTION of that mere 'bible' and its tenets (actually ten-less) which prove they're willfully ignorant, as all of their de-nominations have diverged from The Scriptural Way. De- not of or lesser than; nominations- the Names. Not of the Sacred Names.

You recognize that DaBaR means 'word,' and even The WORD, Yahshua; so, the logical question is, What does 'Wayye' mean? Using every Hebrew letter, it is spelled Waw Ayin Yod Yod Aleph. But that is another essay of SHEMAntiX Providence, yet to come.

Bemidbar is the Hebrew title of the book 'Numbers,' and the fifth word of the original fourth book of Mosheh (there was no 'moses'), which describes the four decades of exile that the original Yishraelites went through for their selfish and sinful words and deeds. [#4057 (B)MiDBaR]

Bemidbar means 'In The Wilderness,' which covered the first census of the escapees, and the second census for the next generation allowed to go into the Promised Land.

As for the first 'Yahshua,' his name was spelled the same as the Messiah: Yod Hei Waw SHin Ayin. It is #3091b in the Hebrew Dictionary of Strong's Exhaustive Concordance. His Name means Yahweh-Saved. Names are important, they specifically identify an individual.

Also, what was the actual, factual name of the Father and Son described in the book of Doctor Loukas (aka Luke)? Who was it that was conceived and born six months before The Messiah?

Yahchanan's approximate conception date can be deduced from the first chapter of Doctor Loukas and 1Chronicles 24:10. So can Yahshua Messiah's, and it's NOT in December. Oh, those ecumenical are getting perturbed now! Are you familiar with the Feast of Tabernacles? You should be.

The two Nuns of YahchaNaN that represent Grace and Mercy are in total agreement with Yahweh's Plan of Salvation.

Grace is the word CHeN, spelled CHet Nun; mercy is the word CHaNaN, spelled CHet Nun Nun, here is where the doubled use of the Nun APPLIES. Remember that we are still in the 'apply' part of the discussion. The single, ending Nun follows the CHet for 'grace,' the CHet means Protection; the Nun means Heir, or Seed. (See AFMTS' thesis for who CHaM is, no HaM about it.)

The Messiah is that Heir and Seed: the Son of Yahweh is the Heir; as descended from Abraham He is the culminating Seed. Bereshyth (genesis) 12:7 and 13:15-16 proves the seed. MattithYah 1:2-17 lists the genealogy from Abraham to Yahshua over 42 generations. Not 'genesis,' but Bereshyth: Beth, the letter B, means IN, RASHYTH the word means Beginnings.

Grace imbued as the "Earnest" part of the Ruach Qodesh (Holy Spirit) is granted when obedient to the Commandments of Elohim, IAW Acts 5:32. Mercy is granted upon those asking for, seeking, and finding that they have come to the knowledge of the Truth; accepting Yahshua as their personal Savior; and living a life of Sanctification.

As for Yahchanan, his name, his INSPIRED name, means: That he was sent to announce the coming of The Right Hand of Yahweh, Who is YAHSHUA (YOD), Who came to ESTABLISH (WAW) Salvation, and to PROTECT (CHET) those Believers who can receive the 'Earnest' GRACE (NUN) and eventual MERCY (NUN).

Now, to again utilize the second term, APPLY, as in This Means You- this APPLIES to you; also, to be applied, to use the third tense of the word, like three coats of paint. Let's hope that it covers, yes, atones for your life being human- naturally sinful.

Let's consider the possibility that, when asked, How is your life going?; Are you making progress?; Are you being blessed? If your answer would be- Yes, I've got The WORD in my life! HalleluYaH!

All of man needs to let The WORD Himself, Yahshua Messiah, be the cause of their blessings.

Taken together, the YOD and the HEI spell the contraction of the Sacred Name Yahweh in The Scriptures: YaH YOD HEI #3050(H). Found in the secular tool The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of The Bible, for all the ORIGINAL names, titles, terms, and Holy Days that were changed in that mere 'book,' the KYPV.

'Yah' and 'Yah Yahweh' both are found in Psalms several times, BUT NOT IN THE KYPV or its derivations. KYPV? What's that, you may ask? The KING YACOBUS PER VERSION.

In Strong's Concordance there are 38 pages (38!) of 120 verses matched with the #3068(Hebrew), where the ONE and ONLY TRUE Name of YAHWEH has been changed to the blasphemous 'ha Baal,' already REVEALED as the KYPV's 'the LORD.' Apologetics don't understand, I'm sorry, I'll freely choose to worship the TRUE Elohim, Yahweh, and His Son, Yahshua Messiah. Words have meanings, and their letters have even more meaning, that's the purpose of the Pictorial Language.

There are only a few instances of the contraction 'YaH' or the Tetragrammaton YHWH in the KYPV, such as Shemoth (exodus) 6:2, but only in the margin, not in the text. Weak and cowardly of them. In some editions there is the one use of the also invented word 'Jah' in Psalm 68:4, which is identified in Strong's as #3050(H), which we know is spelled as YOD HEI, YaH.

That KYPV even changed almost every instance of the term 'HalleluYaH' into the pagan phrase 'Praise ha Baal,' which is written in English as 'Praise the LORD.'

THEY ERASED THE SACRED NAME YAHWEH 6,823 TIMES IN THE KYPV!

The four uses of the hybrid Egyptian-Latin word, NOT A NAME, of 'AdOnAy' and the false four-lettered (tetragrammaton) 'j h v h' into 'jA hO vA h' is weak in its insistence of it being THE name. Dr. Strong may have been limited by the ecumenical (catholic) powers that be in the middle to late 1800's, but he persevered to produce the greatest work necessary to prove those 'powers' as fraudulent and blasphemous. But we still need to turn that extra page in the Strong's Exhaustive Concordance to get to THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE TRUTH.

“Ecumenical’ is the system and personnel dedicated to the advancement of all things based on the fraudulent 'Chri-stian' religion. Supposedly, unification of the different de-nominations is their goal, but they will never do so despite Shaul’s plea, "That ye may with ONE MIND, ONE MOUTH praise Elohim, even the Father of our Master Yahshua the Messiah." Romans 15:6.

A personal note here: After converting into that amalgamation of the pagan mythologies, catholicism, my escape from such came at the cost of a wonderful marriage. Afterward, I spent seven years searching and researching until I came to "the knowledge of the Truth" by asking, seeking, and finding out what and why every human needs to know.

Only Yahweh can provide Salvation through His Son, Yahshua Messiah.

Remember, this is WHY SHEMantiXProvidence is providing the Who and What He is that you need to know. Yah: #3050 is defined as (a contraction of #3068) the Sacred Name, YaHWeH.

In the use of the article 'Ha' to precede a common noun, such as a title, it is used as the correct translation of #1961(H) HaYaH, which is actually "The Yah" from Shemoth (exodus) 3:14.

It is not an ‘I AM,’ but "Ha YaH” that is the form of the Omnipresence of Elohim; to exist, i.e., BE, or become.

As He "was, is, and will be" present in any point in time, all the words in Hebrew that convey such are not available to us at this time, but there are other letter-words: Waw Yod Hei Yod Hei; then Hei Waw Hei, or HaWaH, which is #1934; and Hei Yah Hei, or HaYaH, which is #1961.

Sounded out with two rhythms, slow or faster, the W-Y-H-Y-H could mean Elohim in the past, like heard when chanted by the indigenous: waya-hayah, waya-hayah, or as way-ya-hiyah, way-yahiyah.

As for the "Ha Yah" having even more meaning, when spoken to Mosheh on Mount Horeb, Elohim was answering the question put to Him of, Who is the authority that compels us? In Shemoth, not the Greek 'exodus,' 3:14, the answer is, "Ha Yah, Ha Yah: and He said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Yishrael, Ha Yah hath sent me to you."

Now, perhaps some can understand why that mere 'bible' known as the 'KJV' should be retitled as the King Yacobus Per Version, or KYPV, for its intentional blasphemies. Whenever the Truth is changed to a lie, it has become perverted; thus, the King Yacobus Per Version, KYPV applies!

True it is then, that The WORD of Yahweh was present at Mount Horeb, as the voice speaking to Mosheh. Being The Word, in the Pictorial represented by the Yod, it is the SIGN that means WORD.

The word APPLY means MEANING; the definition of the letter-word Hei is Behold, Miracle, to Reveal, Revelation, to Realize; and as the #5 representing Grace.

All of which APPLIES to you, me, all of mankind, as we are the Creation of the Creator, Elohim, Who is both Father Yahweh and Yahshua The Word.

Thus, the first and second words SIGN and APPLY are de-scribed: more accurately explained from that 'piece of work' written as mostly fiction, the KYPV, as King Yacobus conspired with his 'council' of Psalm 2:2. No, not 'counsel,' as in an attorney or a counselor, but the commission he ordered to blaspheme all things Yahweh and Yahshua.

One could say King Yacobus was the first 'King of the Antishemites,' as properly spelled in accordance with the AlephBeth, not the pagan, inadequate, Greek alphabet. After all, this is an effort done by SHEMAntiXProvidence, where the SHin is restored, and the sigma is put aside. Irony isn't it, that the 'sigma' resembles a snake or serpent? No coincidences in Yahweh Elohim's Truths.

In the case of our third word, APPROPRIATE, there are two definitions for the two pronunciations spoken: with the fourth syllable emphasized; or with the second syllable emphasized. First: to take or make something one's own; and second, right for the purpose, proper.

WAW:

The third letter-word-picture-number of the Sacred Name, YaHWeH, that EVERYONE needs to know is the Waw, which is the 6th letter of the 22. The sixth day is the day Elohim created man.

Adam, the first man, is found in Strong's as #121. The word 'adam,' not the name, is #119(H) ADM 'awdam': to show blood (in the face), i.e. lush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red (ruddy).

It is also #120(H) ADM 'aw-dawm': from 119, ruddy, i.e. a human being (an individual of the species, mankind, etc.), another, hypocrite, common sort, low, man (mean, of low degree), person.

But #121(H) ADM 'aw-dawm' [rhymes with 'autumn']: the same as 120; Adam- the name of the first man. Which is followed by the name of that elder brother of the twins, Edom (ADWM), whom most mere 'bible' readers would know as the brother of Ya'aqob (Yacob), Esau. 'Esau' (#6215 A-SHW) as born but later known as Edom due to his marrying an Egyptian woman and into the pagan religion of Ishmael which is now known as 'islam.' Yes, verify it by Bereshyth (genesis) 16:12 and 17:20.

Both Adam (and Esau) were 'ruddy' due to the red clay that formed Adam to begin with. Six (6) is the number of man, and of carbon, the primary element of our physical bodies.

The Waw is usually spelled simply as W-W (double u - double u), since one W (double u) means the number 6, two of them is 12. Yes, letters that are words and pictures and numbers, this system is not 'numerology,' but numerics. Numerology is a form of occultism, magic that is believed by some; as is sorcery, which is part of the definition of that Middle English and KYPV term: gad's-spell, 'gospel.'

Look at YeshaYaH ('isaiah') 65:11, not 'troop,' but #1408/9 GaD; 'gawd'; Fortune, a Babylonian deity. When an ecumenical (catholic-XPn-protestant) CALLs on their 'GaD,' FORTUNE, an IMAGINARY entity is all they're NOT talking to.

#1408/9(H) GaD? SORRY, WRONG NUMBER!
CALL ON #3068(H) YHWH YAHWEH HE IS THE ELOHIM TO ANSWER YOU
(1 KINGS CHAPTER 18)

'GaD's-spell,' or 'gos-spel,' which is the Adversary's preferred term for the "Good News" brought to man by the Immerser, Yahchanan, who preceded Yahshua Messiah in three ways: conceived six months before Him; born six months before him; and he "cried in the wilderness, Prepare ye the Way of Yahweh" before Yahshua coming out fully as The Messiah.

From YeshaYah 40:3 and Yahchanan 1:23. These are numbers that should be a study for you, the chapter and verse combinations of pertinent passages. Ever notice the prevalence of the 3:16's? No coincidences, only patterns that need to be recognized.

Twelve? The gematria of numbers is a legitimate field of study, even among the pagan cults of the ecumenicals. Pertaining to The Scriptures, it is the twenty-two (22) letters not only being in 'order,' but in an exponential order, too. Aleph through Yod, 1 through 10 identified as single numbers; Kaf through Qof, 11 through 19 by tens; Resh through Tau, 20 through 22 by hundreds. The Resh is #20, = to 200; SHin is #21, = to 300; and the Tau is #22, = to 400. Twelve?

Weren't there 12 sons, 12 tribes of Yishrael? 12 loaves of shewbread; 12 baskets of bread and fishes when Yahshua fed the 5,000; the 12 disciples - those who learn, they became Apostles - those sent, on a mission to teach the Truth of Yahshua? As He said in MattithYah 11:29, in part, "Take my yoke upon you, and LEARN OF ME," not learn of a false entity's invented name 1,500 years later.

Twelve is Yahweh's number for government: making Adam, with the number of man, six, made on the sixth day, equaling twelve (12), to have dominion over all, IAW Bereshyth 1:26.

Which also has a double meaning: (1[2]6). Elohim created man: 6; and from man, woman, 6, to equal 12. The [26] is the value of the Name YaHWeH: Yod = 10, Hei = 5, Waw = 6, Hei = 5; 10+5+6+5 = 26. That is Scriptural numerics. The number six has to do with physical completion. Elohim completed His physical Creation on the sixth day.

The Waw in Pictorial is not drawn as the typical capital letter, it has flatter 'arms' above the stem to resemble an ancient Nail. Meaning to represent something like, Nailed it! As if to Establish, or set something, like a tent peg, or a hook to hang something, and to combine (build) things.

As man moved away or separated themselves from the True worship of Yahweh Elohim and Yahshua Messiah, to other false 'elohim,' the Waw, nail, tent peg, or hook, had to be introduced to the ignorant (unlearn-ed) masses in order to bring Heaven and earth back together.

Recall that the word 'elohim' with the lowercase 'e' is the false entity, so to write 'false elohim' is actually redundant, but one cannot speak in lowercase or capitalized words.

Compare the sound of the KYPV's confusing Psalm 110:1, "The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool." Now the much more accurate, and non-blasphemous, of Yahshua's quote of the same in Doctor Loukas 20:42-43:

"And David himself saith in his book of Psalms, Yahweh said unto my Sovereign, Sit thou at my right hand, Till I make thine enemies thy footstool."

Not a 'cross' of a stem with a beam, but a stake; the stake was such a Waw, it was the tree of suffering that Yahshua was hung upon. The stauros, #4716(G); from the base of 2476; a stake or set upright, i.e. (specifically) a pole.

Another APPROPRIATE term is xulon, #586(G), as is YaTHiD 'Yaw-thade': nail, paddle, STAKE. That's Yod, THau, and Dalet, which mean:

Yod is #10 of 22; Pictorial as the Right Arm and Hand of Yahweh; Yahshua.

Tau is #22 of 22; Pictorial as a lowercase T: meaning End, Last, Name, Covenant, Truth; with-
Hei is #5 of 22; Pictorial as the man waving, saying, Hey!: meaning Behold, Miracle; as #5 Grace.

Dalet is #4 of 22; Pictorial as a Door: Yahshua is The Door.

Narrative: The Right Hand of Yahweh, Who is Yahshua (Yod), fulfilled the Covenant (Tau), establishing His Grace (Hei), by His opening the Door (Dalet) to His Father in Heaven.

The purpose of the Pictorial Waw is that it looks like the raised-to-Heaven arms and forearms of the Messiah before He was nailed, His hands not yet crossed over His head. Perceive the Waw, looking like the modern 'Y' as His arms raised, but not yet bent at the elbows to bring His hands together for one nail to go through both. (Which would cause a worse asphyxiation than arms wide apart.)

His two arms reaching for both the Yahudym and the Gentiles, as He is the Savior of all man. His sacrifice brought those two supposed enemies together, His Salvation for all: all they need to do is believe in Him, and do His Father's Will, as He did.

That 'Will' is ABH 'ABaH': to BREATHE after; to be ACQUIESCENT: - to CONSENT, REST CONTENT, WILL, BE WILLING. Isn't the Breath of Elohim what made Adam live? His Ruach (Breath), further given as the 'Earnest' Holy Spirit to those that obey Him? Acts 5:32.

What does ABaH really mean? Let's look deeper:

Aleph is #1 of 22; Pictorial as an Ox's Head: meaning Leader, First, Yahweh, or Yahshua.

Beth is #2 of 22; Pictorial as a House on a basic blueprint: meaning House, Temple, Vessel, Family.

Hei is #5 of 22; Pictorial as a man standing, legs apart, arms waving above his head: meaning to Behold, Miracle, Reveal, Revelation; and as the #5, Grace.

Aleph and Beth combine to AB, #1(H) in Strong's: Father; Who is the Head (Aleph) of the Family (Beth). Altogether, they mean: The Head (Aleph) of the Family (Beth) bestows Grace (Hei).

Yahweh is the Head of the family, as stated in 1 Corinthians 11: 3. And Yahshua does the Will of His Father: "I can of mine own do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgement is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the WILL OF THE FATHER, which sent me." Yahchanan 5:30.

As The Scriptures tell us, all we need to do is believe in Him, Elohim, Yahweh, and Yahshua. If it's your will to do His, the possibilities are not endless, but everlasting. As in Everlasting Life.

Recall that 'flatter' head of the Ancient Nail, the Pictorial WAW, now complete the 'box' of the two lifted arms of Yahshua Messiah with The Father's two arms reaching down.

As Messiah is to be lifted up, we lift our eyes, and Yahweh lifts His Son; by this we know that Yahshua is also "The Yah." It could look like Yahshua's love for us, His Creation, being presented to The Father, for all of us the Son's of Yahweh to be welcomed home.

As it is ORIGINALLY written: "Then said Yahshua unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that 'Ha Yah,' and I do nothing of myself; but the Father hath taught me, I speak these things." See that!? Yahshua said that He is "Ha Yah," "The Yah." From Yahchanan 8:28.

That is what The Father has planned for all of us, rightly, it is APPROPRIATE, IF we come to Him, to Elohim. If our will is IAW His at our time to leave our human life, He Wills it that we be APPROPRIATED, brought to His Great White Throne for Yahshua's Merciful Judgement.

Thus, we have both uses of the third word, APPROPRIATE, in the adjective: right for the purpose; and the adverb: to make one's own, as read in the previous paragraph.

APPROPRIATE to ESTABLISH.
